

July 6, 2015

Kyushu Electric Power Company

Sendai Unit 1 about to start fuel loading

We, Kyushu Epco, hereby notify that the Sendai Unit 1 has successfully finished all inspections required before fuel loading and will start fuel loading on July 7th.

We will continue to work with safety as the first priority and respond to the regulator's inspections sincerely and attentively, taking all possible measures to ensure safety over the course of the restarting operation.

(Translated by JANSI)