

Schedule for reactor startup and starting adjustment operation of Mihama Nuclear Power Station Unit 3

June 22,2021
Kansai Electric Power Co., Inc.

Mihama Nuclear Power Station Unit 3 (Pressurized Water Reactor, rated electric output of 826,000kW, rated thermal output of 2.44 million kW) has been in the 25th periodic outage inspection since May 14, 2011, is expected to start the reactor on June 23, 2011 and reach criticality on the following day, the 24th.

After that, various tests will be conducted, and the adjustment operation, which is the final phase of the planned outage, will be started on June 29, and the integrated plant performance test on July 27 will be conducted and will restart the full-scale operation.

END

(Translated by JANSI)

This notice has been published on the Kansai's website. For the original text, please go to:
https://www.kepco.co.jp/corporate/pr/2021/pdf/20210622_2j.pdf

